Response to The Herald's plans for a Centennial edition next spring has been truly gratifying.

Numbers of individuals and representatives of businesses and communities have volunteered their knowledge of Milam and Cameron's history from their experience and files.

It is undoubtedly going to be a history rewritten with some of the people who have actually lived it.

We sincerely appreciate the feeling of co-operation the residents of Cameron and Milam County have shown for the idea.

If you know of anyone with an interesting story about Milam County and Cameron, tell them to write it down and send it in or drop by and talk to our Centennial Editor.

In a more serious vein, Sheriff Carl Black admonishes county drivers to stop passing buses while they letting kids out along county roads.

Sheriff Black reported this week that four complaints, two from Mayfield, noted cases of drivers passing standing school buses.

He gives the warning because of the tragic death of that 7-year old on US 77 a few weeks ago.

30-30-30-30

Sheriff Black had visitors at the county jail the other day, but he wasn't around.

It seems that a Brownie Scout Troop was to tour the jail that day.

But it's not too surprising that he forgot the Brownies were coming. It was the day he got married.

Building Permits Hit $568,578 In 1958

Building permits in Cameron during 1958 totaled $568,478, including the $110,000 National Guard Armory being erected just outside the city limits.

The total compares to a 1957 figure of $664,788.72 surveyed by The Herald last year. Major portion of the 1957 total went to the federal housing projects at $452,440.72.

Major construction included in the 1958 totals is the education building of the First Methodist Church, the $323,000 Southwest Bell Telephone Co. dial building and system and several new homes.

A total of 62 permits were taken out on projects ranging from house moving to additions and repairs on many Cameron businesses and residences.

Cameron's sister city, Rockdale, reported a lower total in building permits compared to that South Milam town's 1957 total of $351,095. Rockdale permit totals in 1958 were less than $300,000.

During 1957 building totals actually exceeded the million dollar mark when the city's new sewerage and water filtration plants were projected. A total of $392,890 in 1957 was budgeted for the two projects, now completed and in operation.

Pending completion are several projects started during 1958. They include: installation of equipment at Ideal Hatchery; opening of a restaurant-gas station by Bob Wells, Cameron; construction of the city jail, dial center and the Cameron Guard Armory.

'58 Traffic Losses Spiral To Near Record

Milam County highway accidents in 1958 jumped to a near record in fatalities and damage, according to Officer John Blansit, Texas Highway Patrol, Cameron.

Blansit listed 10 deaths on county highways and one death in Cameron and a total of $101,145 estimated auto and property damage.

His 1958 figures showed a jump in life and property loss during 1957 when only two traffic fatalities and $42,780 estimated property damage were reported.

1958 Statistics

Statistics for 1958 include: 120 accidents investigated by the Texas Highway Patrol on Milam County roads, 26 persons injured in accidents, 11 killed and property damage, $101,145.

Blansit said accident causes ranged from every conceivable cause including drunk driving, speeding, passing on hills and other flagrant law violations.

The state patrolman said that four pedestrian deaths in one year for a county of 26,000 population is unusually high.

Leading the number of accidents was one-car wrecks, Blansit continued, indicating excessive speeding.

Two-Year Comparison

A comparison of the two previous years of county driving records shows:

Twenty-two more accidents during 1958 over 1957's number.

Forty-seven more injured drivers of passengers than in 1957.

Blansit called for co-operation of the driving public to bring the accident loss back to the record low of 1957.

A comparison of 1958 losses to those of 1956 show that county drivers tallied similar damage and losses in the even-numbered years.

Property damage during 1956 was estimated at $100,000 while fatalities totaled 13 with eight dying in multiple vehicle accidents.

Gause Man Held On Burglary Charge In County Jail

Adrian McGowan, Gause, has been arrested on suspicion of burglary, according to Sheriff Carl Black.

Black said that a search of McGowan's home followed a Saturday night burglary in a private residence, but the search revealed items missing from Gause Post-office robbery October 13.

McGowan is in county jail now, awaiting disposition of charges of burglary filed against him, Black continued.

The Gause man may be turned over to federal authorities pending investigation of the postoffice burglary there, the law officer said.

Items found in McGowan's house included C. O. D. items, cosmetics, and clothing, Black told The Herald.

Bigbee Resigns Office

Jail Construction Begins Friday Here After Special Meet

Cameron City Councilmen last Thursday morning accepted the resignation of Public Works Supt. W. D. Bigbee and granted Hughes Construction Co. the jail contract at $3,628.

Bigbee's resignation, effective January 6, was the second shake up in the executive staff of the city since September.

Councilmen said that the city is seeking a replacement for Bigbee, but none had been interviewed by prestime.

City Sec. John Andres said that a number of hopefuls had taken out applications, but none had been turned in.

The council dismissed Maynard Byers, former police chief, in September, 1958, who was succeeded by Police Chief Chester Simons.

Officials said that Bigbee's resignation was accepted in the interests of good city government and a smooth functioning city administrative organization.

Approval of his resignation came Thursday morning following a closed session of the Council Tuesday night January 6, after the regularly scheduled meeting.

As jail work progresses, the city was soon to have a two-cell, all steel and concrete structure replacing the old wooden jail.

Officials said the wood shack was hauled to the new city barn area early this week, making room for the $3,628 structure behind City Hall. Hughes Construction Co., Cameron, will complete the project.

Bigbee told The Herald that he had no immediate plans for the future.

Two Collisions Net $1,525 Loss To Four Vehicles

Two collisions during the past seven days have caused an estimated $1,525 damage and one minor injury on Cameron streets.

Police Chief Chester Simons Wednesday reported that $525 in estimated damage resulted when cars driven by Charlie King and Billie Joe Roznovak, both of Cameron, collided about 8 a.m. Tuesday at West Crockett and West Sixth Sts.

King's vehicle struck a tree after the collision with Roznovak's 1954 Oldsmobile. Damage to the King vehicle was estimated at $400 while Roznovak's car suffered an estimated $125 damage, Simons said.

Tickets were issued to King for exceeding the speed limit and to Roznovak for having no driver's license, Simons said.

In a collision 6:30 p.m. last Thursday, Miss Sue Crow, 16, of Cameron, suffered minor injuries, but was released later from a local hospital.

Cars driven by Miss Crow and Gerald Johnson, Rt. 2, Cameron, collided at the intersection of Travis and Fourth Sts.

Damage to the Johnson 1956 Chevrolet was estimated at $550 and to the Crow vehicle at $450.

Simons said Johnson was driving east on Fourth while Miss Crow's 1953 Chrysler was going west on Fourth.

Officials Seeking Egg-Throwing Yeggs

Three Cameron automobiles were egged Sunday by yet unknown culprits, according to County Atty. Bob Nelson.

Automobiles belonging to YHS Principal J. R. Young, School Board Secretary Max Howard and Don Howard, the senior Howard's son, were splashed with eggs Sunday night near the First Baptist Church, Cameron.

At Austin Demo Meet

McClaren Lists 17 Points

Max McClaren, county Democratic chairman, Saturday in Austin presented a 17-point argument favoring the present party method of electing county delegates in precinct conventions.

McClaren was accompanied by John M. Wied, Rockdale chairman of Democratic Precinct 16 to the meeting of about 250 Democratic Executive Board members and county party leaders.

Representing the McClennan-Milam-Bell Senatorial District were Harry Blanding, Temple, and Dr. A. P. Cagle, Waco.

Gen. Crude Abandons Wildcat At 12,670

General Crude Oil Company No. 1 P. H. Perry, Milam County's latest deep wildcat, was plugged and abandoned last week. Total depth was 12,670 feet.

This test, permitted to 14,000 feet or to the Smackover, drilled through that formation, reportedly finding no shows.

The Perry failure is the latest attempt by a major oil company during the past few years to locate deep pay in Milam County, which was over 400 shallow producing wells but no deep production.

Other deep tries included the Texas Gulf Sulphur Company No. 1 Fee, located about 3 miles northwest of Milano, drilled to 12,670 and abandoned in August, 1955. This test reportedly was in the upper Jurassic and so would have penetrated the Smackover.

The Rimrock Tidelands No. 1 W. F. Crawford, in the eastern part of the county near Clarkson, was a 1956 Smackover failure, and was plugged at 7,003 feet.

Byrd Oil Company of Dallas came nearest to upsetting the trend when their No. 1 Lucinda Green was a dual gas - distillate discovery in 1953 near Gause. This gasser, in the Travis Peak and bottomed at 8,210 feet, was ruined by salt water after producing for a short time.

Graveside Services Today For Colbert

Graveside services will be held at 10:30 this morning (Thursday) at Walkers Creek Cemetery for Eugene Colbert, 64, of Blanchard, Oklahoma. The Rev. E. J. Davis will officiate.

Mr. Colbert died Tuesday at a veterans hospital in Oklahoma City. He is survived by a daughter of Houston, three brothers and four sisters. Among cousins surviving are Miss Kathryn Sproull and C. C. Sproull of Cameron.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Blanchard.

Secret Santa Urges City Christmas Fund

An anonymous depositor placed $5 in each Cameron bank last week for a "Community Christmas Fund" and pledged $1 per week for the remainder of the year.

In an unsigned letter to both institutions, the Christmas depositor challenged Cameron residents to join in the program to raise money for purchase of new toys for the Christmas Santa Pals project, annually sponsored by the Cameron Jaycees.

If the unknown depositor keeps his pledge, his contributions by next Christmas will be about $110.

The letters were dated January 1. The only signature was the typed signature of "Depositor No. 1."

The letter said in part: "I will send $1 a week to each bank to be deposited to the Community Christmas Fund account. I am challenging anybody to do the same. If they will, by the end of the year, we will have enough money to buy new toys instead of having to repair old ones."

He heaped praise on the Cameron Junior Chamber who reached about 225 needy children with Christmas presents during the recent Santa Pals project, Cameron's fourth annual event.

The anonymous donor went on to urge other Cameron area residents to pledge the same $1 a week, depositing that amount weekly to the Christmas fund.

"Depositor No. 1" said also that depositors might want to use numbers rather than their names in making the weekly contributions which, he said, could be reported once a month through "the local newspaper." He said "I am going to use No. 1."

Clois Green, president of the Milam County TB Association, reported $1,254 had been contributed to the Christmas Seal Drive during a meeting of the board at the County Courthouse Monday night.

Green added that it was not too late for those still wishing to contribute to the fund. Green pointed to the need for more funds following a report by the State Health Department that there was an increase in T. B. cases in 1958.

There were 3,628 cases of TB reported in 1958 against 3,552 cases in 1957.

Highway Office Plans Open House In Bryan

C. B. Thames, District 17 engineer for the Texas Highway Department, has announced an open house Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. in the new District Headquarters Building, Bryan.

Thames said that the public was invited to attend the open house to become better acquainted with the Texas Highway Department organization and facilities.

In his final point, McClaren blasted Daniel's proposal in saying that a "Republican can be and evidently is being sent to our county and state conventions, especially when some big newspapers over the state advocate Republican voting in the Democratic primaries."

2 Day Planning Includes Showing Farm, Car Wares

The Cameron Chamber of Commerce is planning a broadened program for the annual Junior Stock Show February 7 after completion of its membership drive, according to Manager Richard Moseley.

He said the major Chamber stock show of the year will be held at the Milam County Courthouse square in conjunction with a display of 1959 farm implements and automobiles.

Tying in with the annual cattle feature, Cameron merchants will hold "Double Dollar Days" Friday and Saturday, February 6-7, Moseley said.

Moseley reported that the Chamber's membership drive had resulted in 45 new memberships thus far and increased dues payment from about 25 present members. The Chamber of Commerce is seeking a minimum of 100 new members during the drive.

He cited two teams of Chamber workers leading the membership drive. They are Jack Tunison and Dr. Sidney Richardson and Lester Williams and Milton Schiller.

"The Chamber hopes to attract even more people to the annual Junior Stock Show, long a Cameron Chamber project," Moseley noted.

"Bringing the show into downtown Cameron will increase parking space and provide more room for showing the animals during judging competition," he continued.

Cameron farm implement and auto dealers may display their equipment the day of the showing, February 7. Dollar Day specials throughout the city both February 6 and 7 will make the project a city wide welcome to Milam Countians," Moseley concluded.

Cotton Belt Assoc. President Requests Acreage Cooperation

The Old Cotton Belt Association, through its president, Wm. F. Hofmann of La Grange, this week urged cotton farmers to plant their full allotments this year, or release excess acreage for reappportionment.

Mr. Hofmann explained the O.C.B.A. has been fighting for more cotton acres in the old cotton growing area for the past four years. It has been quite successful in its fight, however, there is one question that is always asked the officers of the organization — one that cannot be answered.

That query is: "Why do you want more acreage when you do not plant the cotton acreage that is given you?"

Records show that in the old cotton growing area, from five to 15 per cent of allotments are never planted.

"If we are to retain our allotments, we urge the cotton farmer to plant his full allotment, or release to his county ASC Committee any acreage that he is not going to plant. Such acreage may then, in turn, be given to farmers who will plant it," Mr. Hofmann said.

Cotton Diseases
Diseases took a $156 million bite out of the 1958 Texas cotton crop, report 15 cotton specialists located throughout the state. Cotton diseases kept at least 930,000 bales of cotton from being marketed.

Besides the $156 million loss to producers, there were huge losses suffered by railroads, suppliers, trucking companies and other phases of the industry.

Stage Being Set

Slightly Lower Beef Prices Seen

It appears that beef prices in 1959 may not be greatly different from those of 1958, though the average price in 1959 could be a little lower, predicts John G. McHaney, extension economist.

However, he adds, increases in cattle inventory are setting the stage for a price decline some time in the next few years. Any increase in cattle numbers sets the stage for a future price decline and one is very probable in some early year after 1959. But if the rate of expansion can be kept within bounds the drop will not be too severe.

McHaney says the average price received for slaughter cattle in 1959 may be slightly below that of 1958 and profits from feeding cattle may average less than in 1958 when returns were the largest of recent years.

The greatest price strength in 1959 will be in feeder and breeding stock, just as in 1958, the economist points out. The bumper 1958 feed harvest, the second in consecutive years, should keep the demand for feeders at a high level. The strong demand for young cattle, both for feeding and herd expansion, also will help keep the price of feeder and breeding cattle high relative to slaughter and fed cattle.

Consumers will have more meat

Moore Reports On

Local Freeze Damage

County agent J. D. Moore reported that benefits from the recent freeze in killing insects will probably offset damage done to small grain. He added that soil moisture was needed for small grains and grass.

Moore said in his weekly report that livestock conditions were generally good and that pasture and grain set back by freeze will increase the feeding program.

County Agent Says

Make The Most Of Your Income In '59

By J. D. Moore
County Agent

Is your family satisfied with what your income bought the last year? Do you really know where your money went?

More families are making the most of their income by keeping household and farm records to determine where income goes, and where it comes from. "Money, Family Style," an extension bulletin, gives down-to-earth suggestions for family money management and is available at the county Extension office.

THE ORCHARD

January and February, tree planting time in most parts of Texas, are here. And there are lots of things that we should keep in mind if we get our orchard started in tip-top shape. Here are several suggestions on how to handle trees upon arrival and how to prepare soil for planting.

If the trees cannot be planted at once, they should be "heeled in" by digging a trench wide and deep enough to receive the roots. In covering the roots with soil, care should be taken to work the soil into the spaces where the roots are massed together, otherwise there is a danger of drying out. Avoid "heeling in" in poor drainage areas. The soil where the trees are to be planted must thoroughly be prepared. Deep plowing is recommended and should be done in the fall or early winter at which time a cover crop such as vetch, clover, rye or oats may be sown. Broken or torn roots should be removed before the tree is set in the hole. Plant the tree at the same depth that it was in the nursery, and pack the soil firmly around the roots.

COTTON ROOT ROT

Cotton root rot is one of the most common plant diseases in Texas and is found in all areas except the Panhandle and High Plains. Although its name implies that the disease is one of cotton only, the disease is a serious foe of ornamentals as well, especially in areas with heavy alkaline soils.

Ornamental plants affected by the fungus disease will die suddenly, often after having made excellent growth. Large trees may die more slowly. In affected plants, the whole root system decays and but little effort is needed to pull small plants out of the soil. The bark of the roots is decayed and brownish, and woolly strands of fungus can frequently be seen on the root surface.

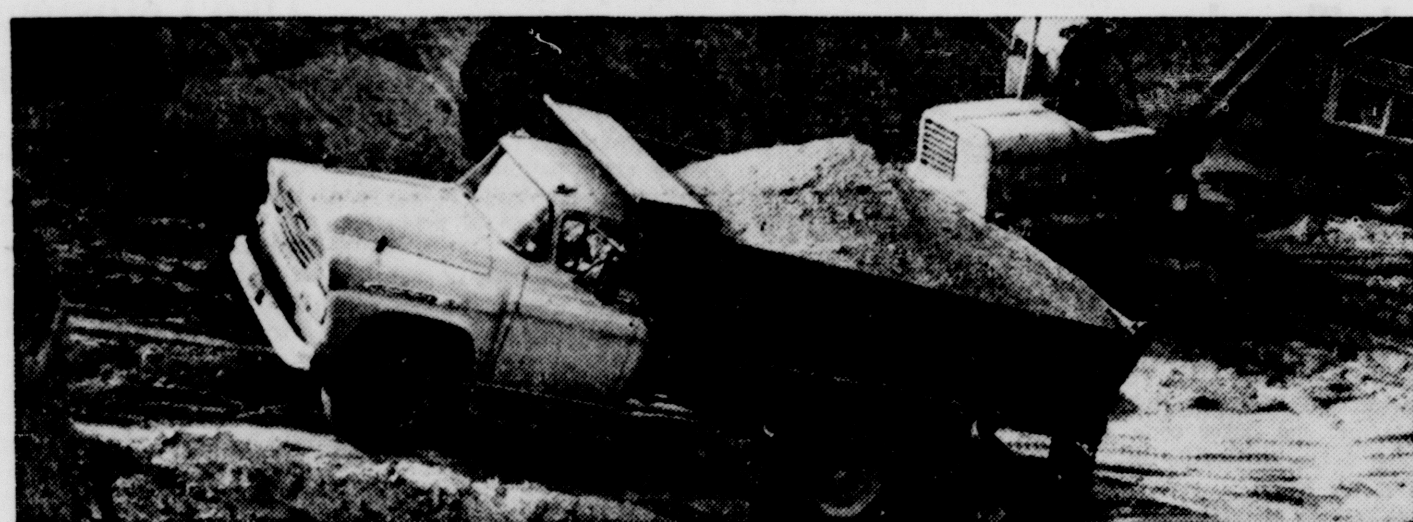

Under moist conditions, spore mats sometimes appear on the soil surface with or without diseased plants. These snow-white and cottony mats range in size from 2 to 12 inches in diameter. They later have a tan and powdery appearance.

POULTRY BLOODTESTING

Pullorum and typhoid are two of the biggest disease problems that producers of hatching eggs have to face. Bill Cawley of the Poultry Science Department of Texas A & M College recommends that every hatcheryman, who wishes to stay in business for very long, have his flock tested for these diseases. There are cases on record where only a few individual reactors have been the cause for bankruptcy.

Cawley says that the cost of having each bird tested is actually an insurance that hatcherymen can't afford to be without. There are two ways to test for these diseases. One is the plate test for chickens and the other is the tube test for both chickens and turkeys. Poultry tests by the tube blood test method are analysed more accurately and thoroughly than they are by the plate test in the field.

Egg production in 1959 is expected to exceed that of last year. F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist, says indications point to a downward trend in egg prices during the next six months. Prices may improve during late 1959.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

JOHN O. MEUSEBACH

Seeker of Liberty for All Men

The story of the founding of beautiful, historic Fredericksburg is the story of another German-born champion of freedom and independence for all. Like Prince Carl of Solms-Braunfels, John O. Meusebach gladly gave up a life of security and ease in the homeland to lead thousands of his oppressed and needy neighbors into a new and better life. Iron of will, calm of judgment, with an unyielding sense of justice, Meusebach was one of the wisest and ablest of all the colonizers of the Southwest. When he arrived at Indianola, on Matagorda Bay, in 1845 and headed for the banks of the Pedernales River, he found many of his German immigrants ill and the project's treasury empty. But on April 24, 1846, Meusebach and his colonists set out for the Hill Country, then largely unexplored. Exposure, hunger and exhaustion took a heavy toll, but idealism and determination kept them going. On Friday, May 8, the weary band stopped their heartbreaking march and began the building of their new homes. They called their colony Fredericksburg, honoring Prince Frederick of Prussia. John O. Meusebach had written another chapter in the history of Texas, the history of fearless pioneers, seekers of freedom.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland . . . "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self Regulation program.

Mr. Homeowner

ARE YOU GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH?

SOME Cameron residents are contracting for composition roofing and insulation siding from high pressure salesmen representing an out-of-town firm.

MAY WE ADVISE YOU:

Check with any of the three Cameron lumber concerns before buying this out-of-town company's products or before signing a contract for either of this concern's products.

Your Cameron lumber businesses can save YOU from

on roofing and siding jobs comparable to the work this company promises to complete.

IF YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD . . .

YOU can get easy down payments and pay out plan through local financing. There is no need to be high pressured into signing a contract with an out-of-town firm and pay them much more for work you can have done in Cameron for a better price by Cameron people.

AN EXAMPLE:

Some local homeowners have contracted to have this out-of-town concern do their insulation siding and roofing for $45 to as high as $60 per square. A local lumber company and local workers can do the same work for about $30 per square. Figure your own savings: The average house in Cameron requires 14 squares of insulation siding. In other words, some Cameron homeowners have been talked into signing away, or giving away, real money.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

So Goes Cameron . . .

The current membership drive of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce has developed some amazing results.

In the first week of the drive, more than $2,000 in dues from new members and membership increases has been registered. The total of new members thus far is about 45, with a goal of 100 within sight.

These results indicate the desire of Cameron businesses to centralize their interest and future in the hands of a competent, aggressive organization.

The Cameron Chamber, with the professional management of Richard Moseley, is bringing forth an earnest desire to improve Cameron in every phase of its social and economic life.

It goes without saying that Cameron as a residential city, a mercantile center or an industrial center is dependent upon the spirited action of a highly organized chamber of commerce.

The focus of growth problems and civic beautification and improvement necessarily falls upon any city's chamber. Without the firm conviction of business and agriculture behind Cameron's ambitions, this city would face even more difficult growth potential.

Bringing an active chamber into line with ambitious school and city councils will present a united front for a total good. It is a three-fold program that now is developing in Cameron, a city, we believe, having a firm hold on Central Texas leadership present and future.

Two tenets of a chamber of commerce are:

ONE: Acting as the spokesman for the business community, translating into action the group thinking of its membership.

TWO: Rendering specific services most effectively handled by a well-organized community organization for both its membership and the community as a whole.

The future of a city depends upon economic and social factors. The two are inseparable.

In the present age, if a city is to maintain its economy, it must function aggressively as a whole. If a city is to grow, a super movement as a whole must occur. When a city fails to function, people lose interest and loyalty to the town, then finally seek "greener pastures" for home and future. When people move away, businesses close or cut back on goods and services. Population continues to dwindle; businesses continue to die.

It is a case of all working together or all falling apart.

Cameron is working together. The Chamber movement shows that. The city government and Cameron school system continue to improve. The three are functioning separately, but actually working together.

We believe in Cameron. Its history shows stability and capability. Its present is adapting to changes that we have not wrought, but must accept. Its future will show the strength of vital leadership, modified by the requirements of our satellite age.

That leadership includes your Chamber of Commerce, currently working for the future of every citizen of Milam County's seat.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Says If Russian Politician Stops
By His Place, He Wants The Cash

Dear Editor:

I noticed in the papers that another Russian visitor, a man by the name of Mikoyan, second in command over there, has been touring the United States and I read in a copy of a newspaper which I borrowed out of my neighbor's mailbox in the interest of furthering the good neighbor policy and will return if he acts unreasonable about it that Mr. Mikoyan says one trouble with U.S.-Russian relationships is that we don't trust Russia enough.

What puzzles me about this is why should it puzzle Mr. Mikoyan? He knows the Russians better than we do and I doubt if he can trust his home folks enough to be 100 per cent sure he'll have his own job when he gets back home.

As I understand Russian politics, over there, you don't get elected for any definite term, you just stay in office until you get to trusting your assistants too much, at which time you wake up on a train to Siberia and one of your assistants is occupying your office.

Probably what Mr. Mikoyan meant was we ought to trust him since nobody at home would.

As everybody knows, whenever there's a change in office over in Russia, the number of funerals picks up. This is because the Russian politicians have found it's hard to get a man you've just kicked in the teeth to trust you to any extent you can depend on.

I guess maybe it sounds reasonable for the Russians to tell us to trust them when they say they won't build any more hydrogen bombs and wouldn't think of using the ones they've got, but I sure prefer to keep some lying around handy on our side just in case.

I don't know how I got off on this weighty subject, when actually I ought to be thinking about a new crop year for 1959. In the mean-

Capital Report Legislature Faces Thankless Tax Task

By Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN—Texas' 56th Legislature soars off the launching pad this week.

Predictions are that it'll be orbiting around the Capitol for many months to come — certainly long enough to put to good use the air conditioners newly installed in the legislative chambers.

Many have suggested the 56th will have one or more special sessions before it can solve all its pressing problems. Certainly before they can leave, the lawmakers will have to perform the thankless task of levying many more millions in state taxes.

Additionally, they'll be beset on all sides for new spending programs which would call for even more taxes.

After several months of this, outer space may loom invitingly calm compared to the Texas Capitol.

THIN KITTY

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's official revenue estimate for 1960-61 is more of a storm warning than a forecast.

Calvert expects the state's general fund deficit to hit $65,234,703 by the end of this biennium next August. Under the present tax set-up, he estimates revenue to the same fund during the next two years would total $189,697,245.

After the deficit is taken care of, only $115,000,000 would be left for 1960-61 spending. It's a pretty thin kitty when compared with the $282,000,000 appropriated from general revenue for 1958-59. It means the state will have to raise $167,000,000 more just to maintain its present "standard of living."

Comptroller Calvert's official revenue estimate this year is a far cry from the one he made two years ago for the 55th Legislature. In that well-heeled era Calvert forecast approximately a $50,000,000 surplus. No one paid too much attention to outgoing House speaker Jim Lindsey's prophecy that spending needs would outrun this figure.

In good years and bad, the Legislature is bound by law to hold its appropriations within the comptroller's revenue estimate.

TREASURE HUNT

A number of economies plus stricter levying and collecting of present taxes might net the state as much as $74,599,557 without new taxes.

This report was made by a financial study committee headed by Secretary of State Zollicoffer. Committee was appointed by Gov. Price Daniel last summer.

It's six cash-raising ideas: (1) cut more tax-collecting personnel in the comptroller's office, (2) cut out tax exemptions for beer and cigarette sold on military bases, (3) increase franchise tax rate (4) consolidate state "housekeeping" services (such as telephones), (5) increase fees charged by state agencies and (6) establish a "conservatorship" for the state to take over unclaimed money (such as bank accounts) and personal property.

Senate Investigating Committee also inquired into the comptroller's work, was told that additional personnel would make it possible to collect millions more in taxes.

HOPE FOR CREDITORS

time, if Mr. Mikoyan happens by my place out here and wants to buy a dozen eggs, I'd just as soon be paid cash.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

State Liquidator C. H. Langdeau reported his office is making progress toward clearing up some of the stickier problems resulting from insurance company failures.

Langdeau told the Senate Investigating Committee that if some proposed property sales go through creditors of US Trust and Guaranty will get a 10 per cent payment. They have previously received a 31 per cent payment.

Cecil Rotsch of the liquidation division told the committee that ordinary life policies of bankrupt Estate Life Ins. Co. had been re-insured and the unsound industrial policies cancelled.

In an earlier report the Senate Committee had charged Insurance Commissioner William A. Harrison with negligence contributing to the downfall of Estate.

BATTLE LINES DRAWN

Representatives of Texas Municipal League and spokesmen for the state Firemen's and Policemen's Associations tried to have a friendly get-together. Purpose: to share views on future legislation on firemen's and policemen's wages, hours and pension plans.

Municipal League wanted to talk about its plan to put more control of wages and hours in the hands of city councils, rather than the Legislature. Firemen and policemen were more interested in their plan to get the Legislature to limit working hours in cities over 10,000.

After a stormy session the two groups admitted they were "poles apart."

Each gave notice they'd stick by their guns and fight it out at the Capitol.

Cameron's Business - Industrial Review

Story Of Cameron Business Leadership

Burkes-Howard Is Headquarters For Farm, Home

The Burkes-Howard Co., Cameron and Bartlett, offers an outstanding line of farm and home name-brand appliances and machines, including International-Harvester trucks and Farmall row-crop tractors.

Max Howard, general manager and half-owner in the business, points out many other family names in appliances, farm equipment and allied materials as well as one of the largest stock of service parts in Central Texas.

"We really service what we sell," Howard says. "Our well-stocked parts department has just about everything to keep equipment sold at Burkes-Howard going. And we have the servicemen to do the work right."

Many Products

Burkes-Howard Co. lines include General Electric appliances, Star tires, Choremaster and Eska lawnmowers, Continental post-hole diggers and sprayers, stalk shredders by Service Equipment Co., Windpower rotary hoes and farm trailers, Ranger home trailers, Whirlpool freezers, lawn furniture, evaporative coolers and baling wire.

"We have a competent staff to stand behind our line of merchandise," Howard continues.

Burkes-Howard now has two stores, allowing them to buy in larger quantities for discount prices to farm consumers. Howard and his partner E. J. Burkes, opened a farm equipment and appliance store in Bartlett in May, 1957.

Chevy Introduces Sports Model

A new sport sedan will soon be available through Earle Pearson Chevrolet, 100 S. Travis.

The car is in the Bel Air series and was inspired by universal admiration for the distinctive 1959 "hardtop" styling introduced exclusively as an Impala sport sedan. The Bel Air model makes available the same sportive appearance at a more moderate price, according to Earle Pearson, local dealer.

According to E. N. Cole, general manager of Chevrolet, the new model results from retail market soundings that indicated strong sales sentiment. Production has already started and dealers are being stocked.

The sport sedan, or "four-door hardtop" as it is more popularly known, is comparatively new in the postwar automotive field. Patterned after the two-door hardtop in which side windows roll completely into the body, the car boasts superlative visibility and a light, airy appearance.

In the 1959 Chevrolet overall design, the sport sedan is especially attractive and two inches lower than other Bel Air models. The roof is flat and overhangs the compound curvature of the broad rear window. Features of the two other sedans in the Bel Air series are otherwise incorporated. Luxurious interior appointments and upholstery color-keyed to exteriors are points in common. Body identifications include a full-length, stainless steel molding with a depressed Snowcrest White central area and the Bel Air name in script.

In addition to the new Bel Air Chevy, Earle Pearson offers a complete line of popular priced new Chevrolet cars and trucks. Pearson also operates an OK used car lot at 1st and Crockett Streets directly behind his new car showroom.

A veteran of 23 years in Chevrolet sales, service and parts, Pearson is also experienced in auto financing through GMAC and offers installment financing of reasonable repair bills.

"We also feature auto insurance on our new and used cars," Pearson continues.

"Our first aim is to give honest, dependable service that continues long after the sale of a new 1959 Chevrolet or an OK used car," he adds. "We want the confidence of our customers, lasting customers. The best way we know to keep their confidence is with straight-forward business dealing."

South Texans Pay $1.4 Billion In Taxes During '58

R. L. Phinney, District Director of Internal Revenue at Austin, announced today that internal revenue collections for 1958 for the Austin District, which comprises roughly the southern half of the State, amounted to $1,412,270,175. Mr. Phinney said that this was approximately $37,000,000 less than the all-time high year of 1957, when collections were almost $1,450,000,000.

A portion of the decrease was attributed to the elimination of transportation of gasoline by pipeline.

There was also a decrease in the amount of taxes paid by corporations and individuals, although there was a substantial increase in the amount of withholding taxes collected and paid by employers. Mr. Phinney said further that this increase in withholding taxes indicated a high employment level and a generally healthy economic condition in South Texas.

BLASTS OF winter herald emergence of the banquet season, one of the most refreshing aspects of schoolboy and collegiate sports.

Football feasts are the current rage, with a variation of speaking talent imported at different stations to regale the youngsters, parents, school officials and plain friends.

Anyone who thinks speaking to a group of high school youngsters, especially when they expect to be entertained humorously, takes little effort, has never stood in that hot spot.

Like the DiMaggios of baseball, the Hogans of golf and Bobby Laynes of football, however, there are natural after-dinner speakers—fellows who could make a solid living at it if they hadn't chosen another profession.

One of the best is Claude (Chena) Gilstrap, Arlington State's successful football coach and it is a cinch his corn pone humor will tax many a weak heart before leaves begin to turning green.

Few Texans ever impressed the cynical Los Angeles sports writers. Chena not only warmed them, he became such a fond playmate the staid Junior Rose Bowl came to that classic a second consecutive year.

He completely throttled the Californians, including such dignitaries as Governor Goodwin Knight, Walter O'Malley, president of the Dodgers, the Reverend Bob Richards and Senator Bill Knowland.

Chena tells of the night his wife sat in the stand during a losing season, when a preacher prayed that the best team win. "Some fellow who had been to the trough a few too many times," Gilstrap chuckled, "said in a long voice, just as the preacher finished: 'What we need is a preacher who prays for an upset!'"

A lady, now a Los Angeles resident but formerly of El Campo, walked up to Gilstrap in a hotel not many steps from the Rose Bowl, with greetings from home. "Hello coach," she said. "You don't know me but I know you. I am from El Campo and you were the enemy when you coached at Wharton."

"Lady," the lanky Chena retorted, "the only guy I ever knew in El Campo was Glenn Lippman and when I found out he had another year of eligibility I resigned!"

IT IS often enlightening to look back upon well-directed quotes of the previous year and see how they fared. One of a misfiring nature came from George Wright, Baylor publicity director. George said of Sam Boyd's new formation: "If our passing clicks, they Hallback Bill Pavliska" could make a thousand yards." The passing clicked as Bear Quarterback Buddy Humphrey led the nation but Hickman was a disappointment and the Baylor line never got Pavliska loose for the thousand yards.

Don Allen, the University of Texas' razor-tackling linebacker, reminds of Ray McGallion, former Tyler Junior College and North Texas fullback when it comes to smashing a ball-carrier in his tracts. McGallion is an assistant to Maurice Nobbs at Silsbee. Liberty, Under M.L. Lampert, has won district 24AA football championships the past three years and returns most of its semifinal group next fall. Close observers at the University of Texas feel Nederland Quarterback Roger Eienstra, injured, in the Baylor frosh gam, could push Bobby Lackey out as No. 1 Longhorn quarterback next fall. Frank Godsoe, Houston Press, speaking of Angleton's 2A finalists: "Bill Hamrick did the state's best coaching job. That's the best little team I ever watched and I mean little!"

Baytown remembers Brazosport's Jerry Spence, a deadeye basketball shooter who delighted in pouring 'em in against the Ganders. The bespectacled youngster currently leads Wharton Junior College point makers. C. B. Roland, who successfully called a coin-flip that got Alvin into the football playoffs after a three-way tie with El Campo and Bay City, was Bay City coach seven years. Remember Clyde Letbetter, the ram-paging Baylor middle-guard who killed Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl and helped create the false impression Sam Boyd would be at Baylor for years? The handsome young giant, visiting the Conroe home-

Did you know that Huntsville, where the Chamber of Commerce puts on its annual invitation high school basketball tournament, held the first meet of that kind for Texas schoolboys? Not only is their meet the oldest, having been inaugurated in 1925, but the production may be the only high school tournament in the nation that had a crucial college game as a preliminary contest to its own championship clash. That's right, Sam Houston State met Stephen F. Austin in a Lone Star Conference game.

ELECTRICITY FOR 1969 ON DRAWING BOARD NOW

Time was when the spring and fall catalogues were "dog-eared" from use by the whole family... selecting and ordering merchandise needed for the coming season. Ordering and waiting was the accepted procedure for much of the buying.

Not so with the electric industry! A closer look reveals, for more than 46 years, those receiving their electric service from TP&L have never had to wait. Placing an order simply meant flipping a switch and your electricity was there instantly to serve you.

This instantaneous service, now taken for granted, is possible because TP&L is constantly planning to keep ahead of your needs for electricity. As your requirements have grown, TP&L has always anticipated your increasing needs. Construction plans for supplying your power needs five to ten years hence are on TP&L's drawing boards now. It takes three years of construction time to build a modern power plant... so you can see that plans must be developed years in advance, commitments made and contracts signed. This is the only way to be sure you'll have plenty of power... always.

TP&L is a product of our country's free enterprise system at work. Through advanced planning and efficient operation it has been able to keep your supply of electricity plentiful, and the price low. Since 1936 the unit price of residential electricity has gone down 43% while the cost of living has gone up 108%.

OUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION TO YOU
Happy New Year to everyone in Cameron from all of us at the Telephone Company.

Since this is the season for resolutions, I thought you might want to know a little bit more about a resolution that we try to follow 365 days a year in providing telephone service to you and your neighbors. Here it is —

WE DEFINE OUR OBJECTIVES

"Our objective is to furnish the best possible telephone service at reasonable cost—a cost consistent with financial safety and fair treatment of employees."

"Service ranks above everything else in this policy. And the only good service is one that is continually improving. To furnish this service we need the best people, the best equipment, the best methods, and the best management we can develop."

"Reasonable cost has been defined as one that produces an ever-growing public demand. Our equipment, training, and methods would net us nothing if the cost of service became so high that people would not buy it."

"Financial safety should not be endangered by setting the price of service too low. In the long run, a price that provides profit enough to undertake new research and development results in better, cheaper service to the public."

"Fair treatment of employees means good pay, good working conditions, reasonable job security, and opportunity for advancement based on merit. It is people — employees — who are the most important element in the success of any business."

WE ACCEPT THESE RESPONSIBILITIES

"TO THE EMPLOYEES . . . provide machines, methods, equipment, direction, leadership, job training, incentives to progress, selection for promotion."

"TO THE PUBLIC . . . more and better service at a reasonable cost. Contributions to public welfare and national defense."

"TO THE OWNERS . . . run business in a sound, profitable manner."

LOOKING AHEAD

"Progress has long been the keynote of the telephone business. And, if business forecasters are anywhere near correct, the next 20 years will bring more growth and development than we have ever seen before."

"The future can be faced confidently with a policy of equal consideration for owners, employees, and the public."

"That's probably the longest resolution you've ever heard about, but it takes a lot of effort to give you the best in telephone service."

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Easy Carpet Cleaning Discovery Hailed

What is said to be the easiest and "cleanest" rug cleaner, known as Blue Lustre, is available after years of research.

Blue Lustre leaves no foreign residue to cause rapid resoiling. The pile is left open and fluffy as the colors spring out like magic. So easy to apply with a long handle brush (like playing shuffleboard) and is safe for all types of carpets.

Use Blue Lustre to clean the entire carpet or remove spots and traffic lanes. It's economical as 1/2 gallon of concentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.
